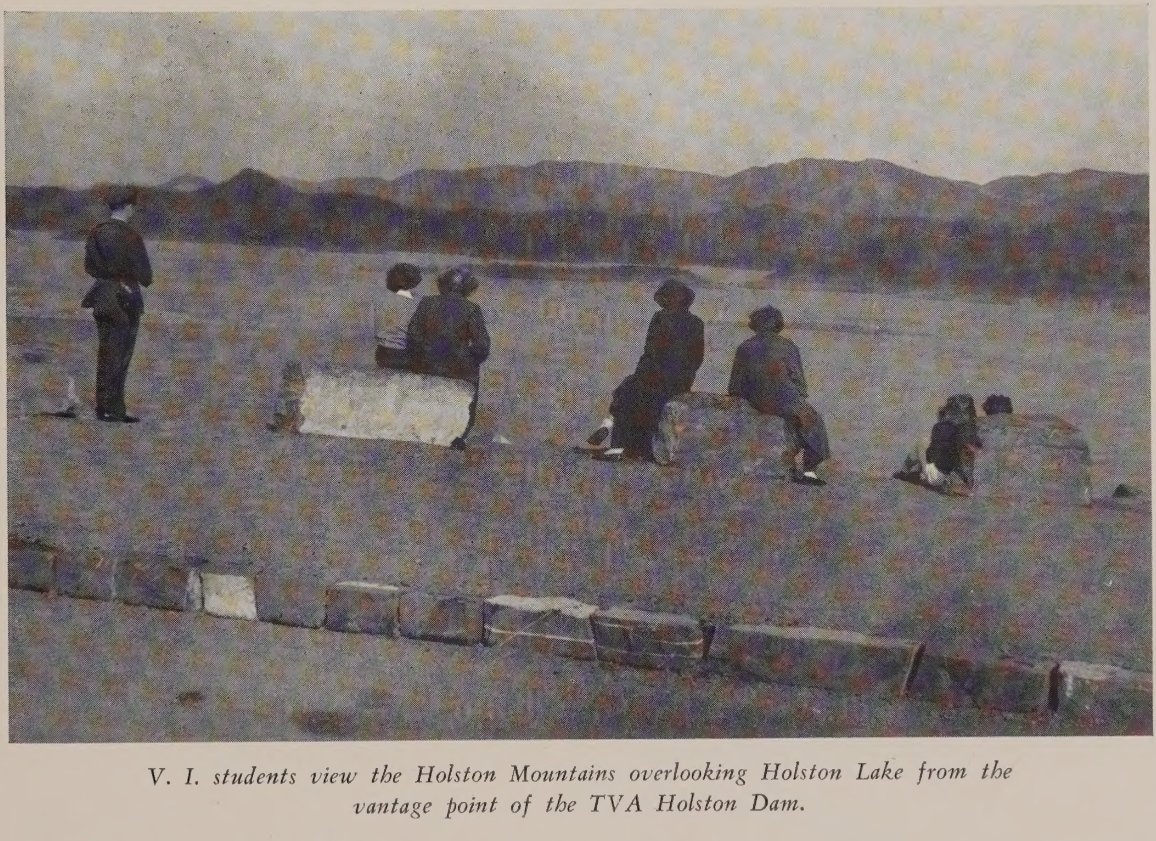
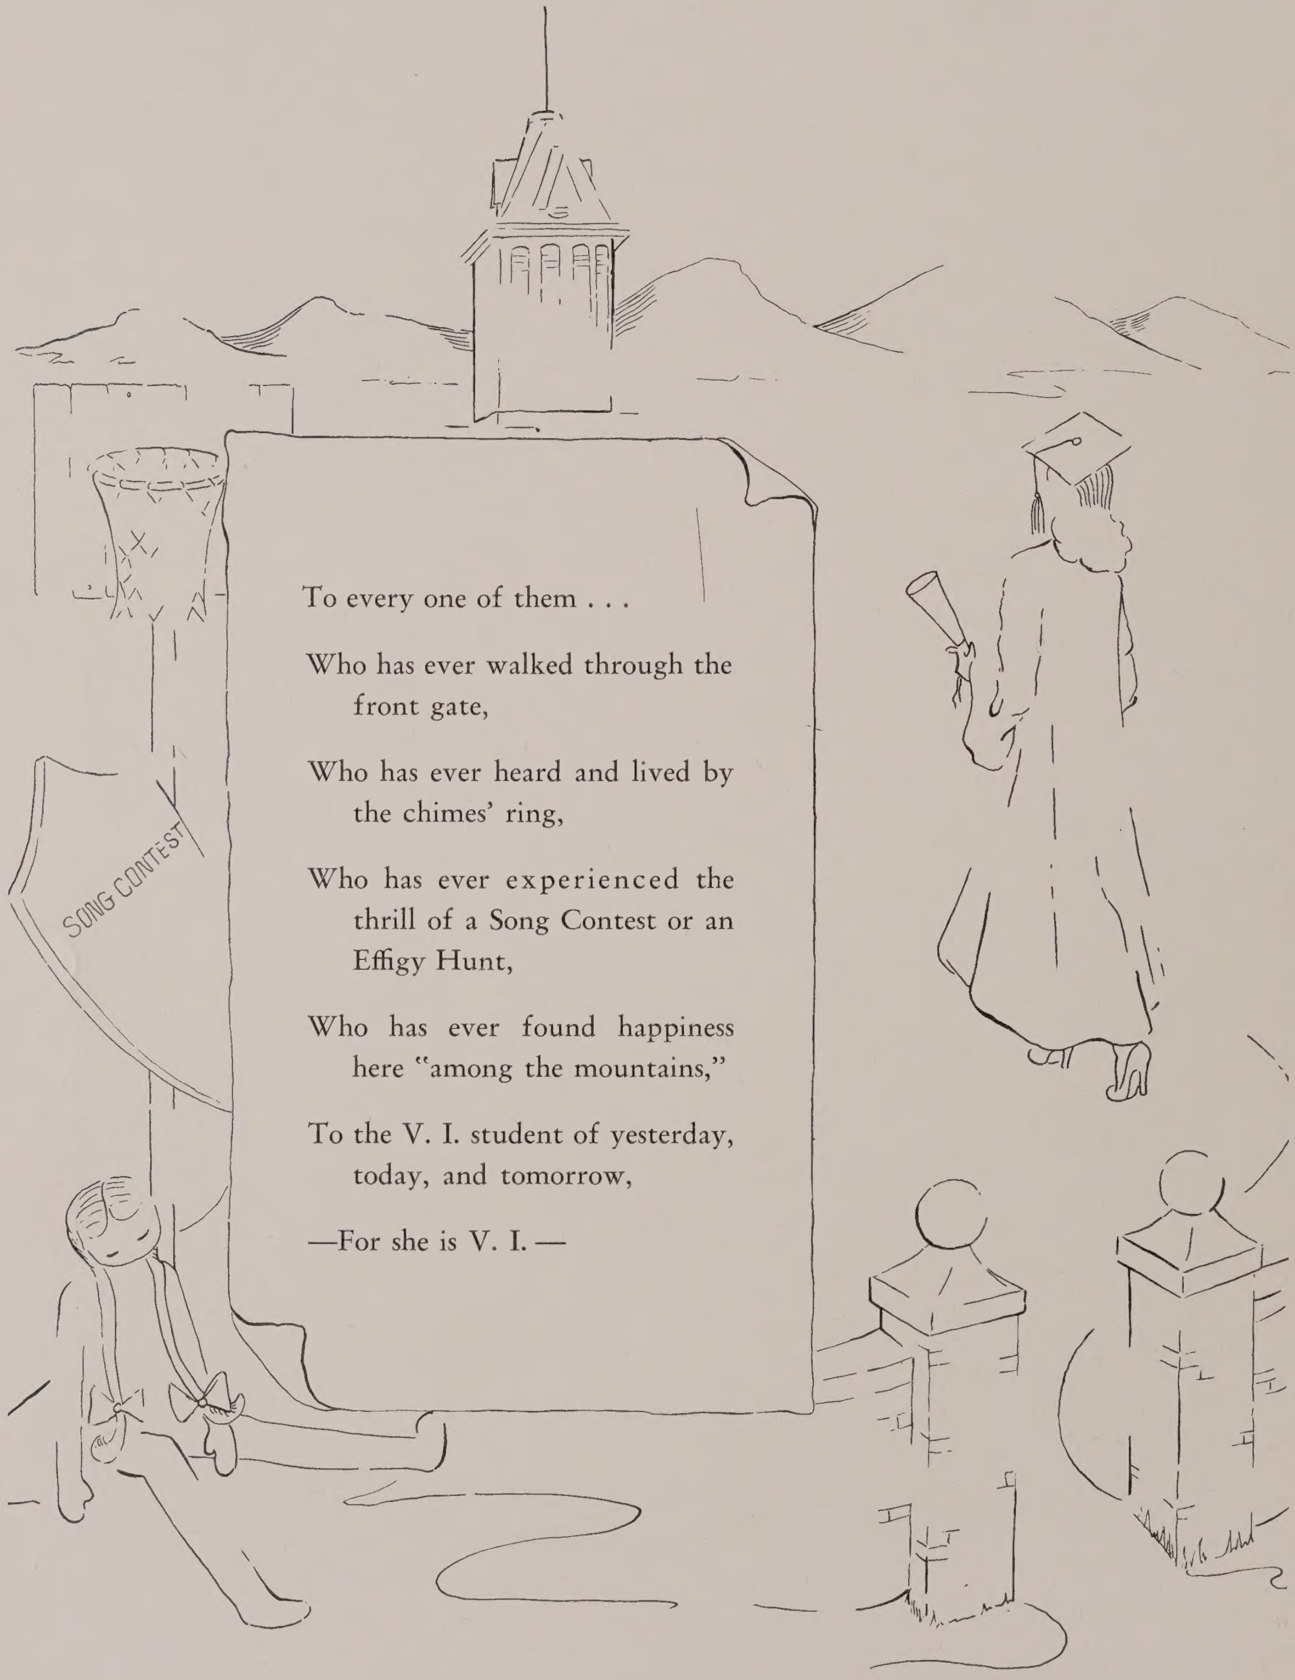
Foreword

Inseparable from Intermont are the mountains of the Appalachian Range, which loom blue and stately on the horizon, keeping constant vigil over the college and its inhabitants. These mountains, dappled with sunlight in spring, clothed with myriad autumnal colors in fall, or garbed with patches of snow in winter, have for over sixty years symbolized for Intermont girls the highest aspirations of the college itself — a college planted in the firm soil of tradition but ever reaching toward greater heights in the mental, physical, spiritual, and educational realms. Because of the thousands of girls who have felt the impact of these mountains and this school on their lives, the INTERMONT staff has chosen "Intermont —among the mountains" as the theme for the 1953 yearbook.



V. I. students view the Holston Mountains overlooking Holston Lake from the vantage point of the TVA Holston Dam.

To The Typical V. I. Student



To every one of them . . .

Who has ever walked through the front gate,

Who has ever heard and lived by
the chimes' ring,

Who has ever experienced the thrill of a Song Contest or an Effigy Hunt,

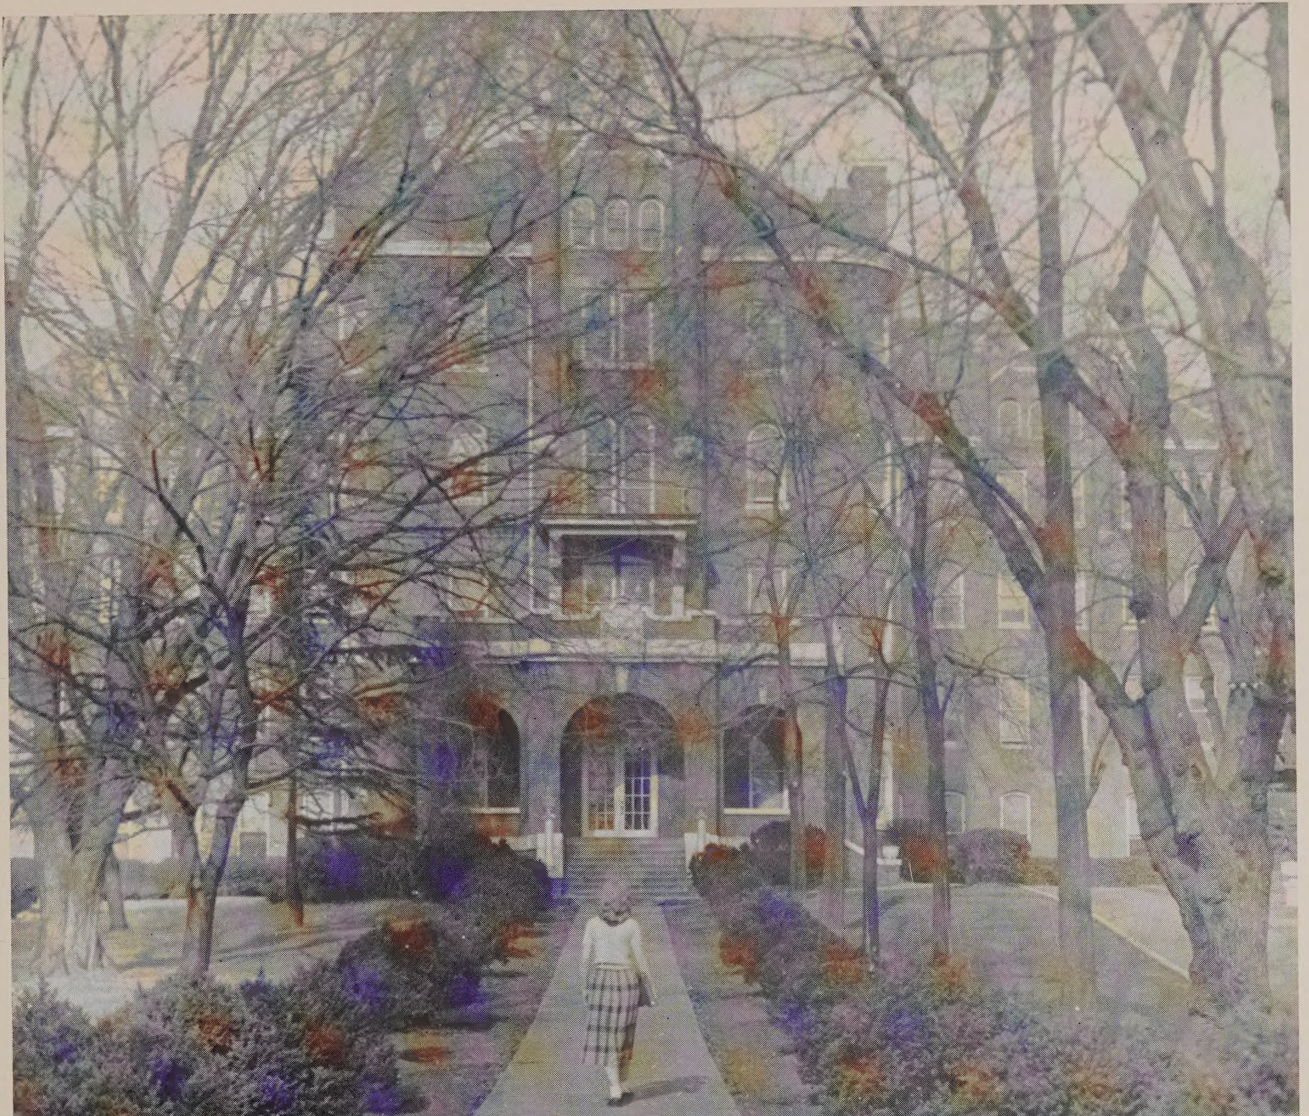
Who has ever found happiness
here "among the mountains,"

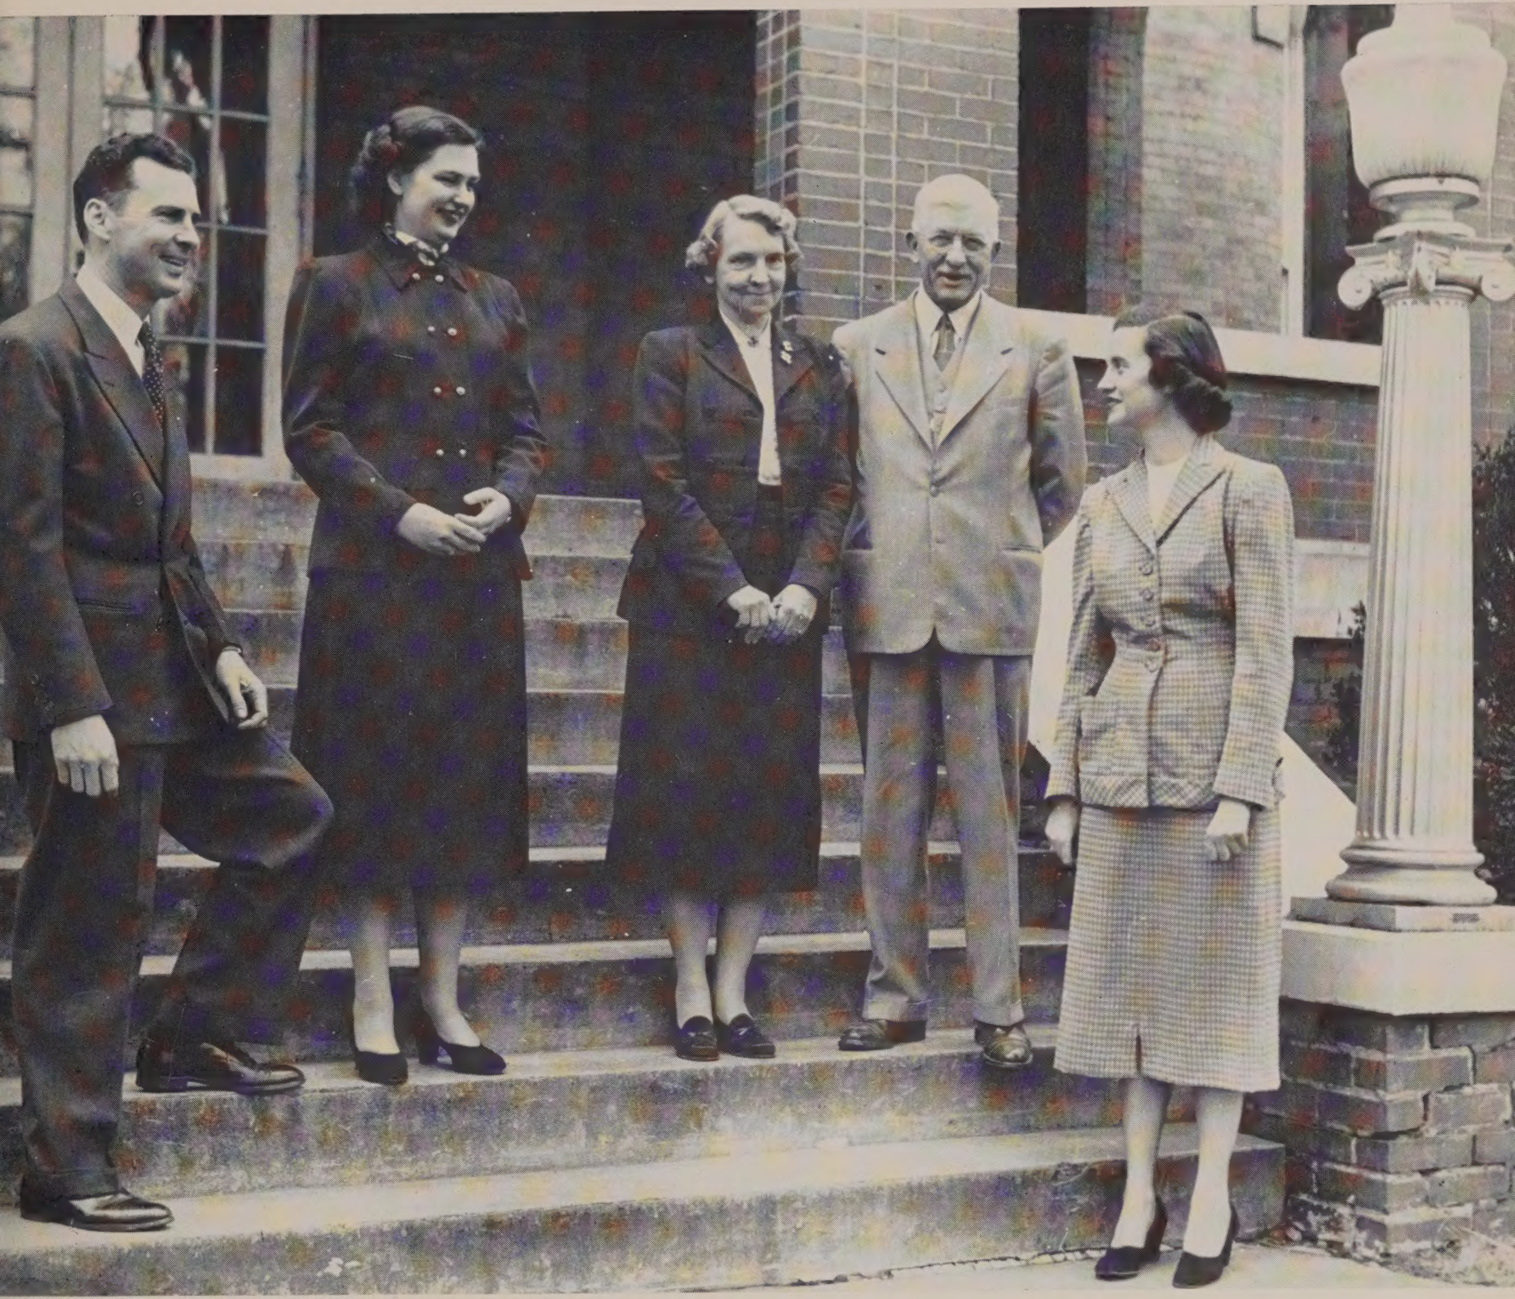
To the V. I. student of yesterday,
today, and tomorrow,

—For she is V. I.—



The Intermont is Dedicated

ADMINISTRATION and FACULTY



Intermont's faculty is as varied and cosmopolitan as is Intermont's student body, yet it has proved itself able to work harmoniously with the college administration in producing well-educated, well-integrated students.

Administration

DR. RABUN LEE BRANTLEY
President

Dear to our hearts and always in our Intermont memories is the guiding light of V.I., Dr. Brantley. With his ever-ready smile and friendly greeting, he is friend and counselor to all. Intermont girls have found that his chapel and vesper programs, whether in praising or instructing moods, are never-to-be-forgotten, and that his home, always open to students, is made warm and friendly by a most gracious host and hostess.

V. I. is very proud of Dr. Brantley's achievements in college work. The Southern Association of Junior Colleges elected him president in 1947, and in 1948 he served as president of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women.

Dr. Brantley received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from Mercer University, and his Ph.D. from George Peabody College. At Mary Hardin Baylor, he was professor of English and Journalism, and at Bessie Tift College, he served as treasurer, along with his position in the English and Journalism Departments there. He has also served as dean at the University System of Georgia Evening Colleges, and was for two years editor of the Southern Automotive Journal.

Administration

Miss Pflug, our Academic Dean, is the one to whom we all turn for help in preparing for the future. Never lacking in patience and understanding, she is always willing to help in her gentle and gracious way.

Dean Pflug's wide experiences abroad enable her to excel in her work. After doing preparatory work in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland, she studied at the University of Berlin and the University of Geneva. Miss Pflug received her Ph.B. degree from John B. Stetson University and her A.M. degree from Columbia University.

Besides planning our courses of study, Miss Pflug is known for the excellent way in which she teaches French and German.

DINING ROOM

One never-to-be-forgotten friendship made at Intermont will be that of our beloved "Mumsie," as she is known to us. Truly a friend to all, she represents every standard of ideal womanhood. By her youthful manner and winning way, she has influenced us in striving to achieve her standards. She impresses upon us the true spirit of V. I. Always on hand at every occasion with a cheerful greeting, she has meant much to all of us. Much could be said about our "Mumsie," but our feelings for her in our hearts will long outlive a few spoken words.

Administration

One who holds an important place in the hearts of all Intermont girls is our own Dean of Women, Miss Gravlee. In every way her sparkling humor keeps us happy with a smile each day and her seriousness in times of guidance commands the respect and admiration due her for her outstanding consideration and sincerity. Always full of energy, she seems to be everywhere on campus at the same time, joining in our good times and helping us solve our problems. Along with her many duties, Miss Gravlee is known for the interesting and practical way in which she teaches psychology.

Miss Gravlee is a native of Alabama and received her B.A. degree from Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama. While there she served as secretary to the Counseling Service, and as part-time psychology instructor. She then became instructor of psychology at Mary Hardin Baylor College. Next Miss Gravlee acquired her M.A. degree in psychology from George Peabody College in Nashville, and was awarded an A.A.U.W. Fellowship and a Graduate Assistantship, working with the Director of Student Life and Resident Halls.

Administration

There is no better way to describe Mr. Snodgrass than as the friendly little man behind the camera. Although Business Manager is his official title, he has meant much to us in his efforts to give us a picture history of our Intermont days. He is constantly doing something for us and the school, and V. I. is truly grateful for having such a versatile man to do the many things that he so capably performs.

Mr. Snodgrass received his A.B. degree from Emory and Henry College, has taught at Liberty Hall, Virginia, High School, and was principal of Barrack, Virginia, High School.

MRS. W. E. CROCKETT
Director of Public Relations

Administration

Behind V. I.'s "by-line" is Mrs. Crockett, who cheerfully and energetically goes about her job as Alumnae Secretary and Director of Public Relations. Keeping V. I. in the public eye, she is constantly after everyone to "get the news in on time." She impresses upon each of us the valuable asset of a well-rounded personality, and she truly represents the V. I. spirit.

Since coming to V. I. in 1946, Mrs. Crockett has been responsible for organizing many alumnae chapters. Included in her many duties are taking care of our laundry problems, traveling for the school, and making personal contacts with prospective students.

The chief endeavor of the Student Council is to express character, leadership, and scholastic standing in the student body. Thus, the Student Council plays an important part in the make-up of our school.

During the year, the Student Council sponsors many activities, including a Faculty Auction and the Student Government Formal. This year the proceeds of these activities went to the support of a war orphan in Europe.

The Honor Council is composed of the following members: the Academic Dean, the Dean of Women, three other faculty members appointed by the President of the college, the presidents of the senior, junior, and high school classes, one other member from the senior class elected by the students, and the president of the Student Council.

Classes at Intermont are conducted in informal, friendly fashion. Students are considered individually, and teacher-student friendships are not the exception, but the rule. Courses offered are designed to fit the interests and abilities of almost every type of girl.

ENGLISH

Mr. Cooke gives an art exhibit.

First year English, under the direction of Miss Mary Meade and Mrs. George P. Milne, emphasizes correctness, originality, and naturalness of expression in both written and oral work. At the end of the year the students make use of what they have learned in writing their research theme.

Second year English is a general survey of English Literature. Mr. C. Ernest Cooke, the instructor, brings life to his classes by discussions on current plays, art, and music. Throughout the year he presents exhibitions displaying the many curios he has collected on his travels to Europe and throughout the United States.

HISTORY

History, under the direction of Mr. Harrison Daniel, is composed of courses in World Civilization, American History, and Current History. These courses acquaint the student with the story of man's development from past to present, giving him a better understanding of America's economic, social, and political problems today. Newspapers and magazines are used in the Current History class, where happenings of the world today are discussed.

PSYCHOLOGY

Psychology, taught by Miss Pauline Gravlee, is one of the most interesting and informative classes on the campus. During the year, General Psychology, an introductory course in the fields and methods of psychology, and child psychology are taught.

RELIGION

One of the most popular classes at Intermont is Religion, taught by Dr. James L. Turner. Classes in both Old and New Testament history are offered, as well as classes in comparative religion. The latter gives the student a knowledge of the eleven living religions of the world, and an insight into the various Christian faiths.

Second-Year Typing

Secretarial Science

V. I. can truly boast of an excellent Secretarial Science Department. With its standard courses in shorthand and typing, it is fully equipped to prepare secretarial majors for the business world. Realizing the importance of a well-rounded, efficient, business woman, the department is designed to give the student a broad background in the business field.

The department is headed by Mr. Harold E. Ayers, instructor of accounting, economics, and business law. Miss Mary Lou Smith and Miss Margaret Stewart are teachers of shorthand and typing. In these courses students strive to attain a high degree of accuracy and speed.

By the well-rounded course that the department offers, a secretarial major upon graduation may obtain a position in a business office as a clerk, typist, stenographer, or secretary.

Accounting, business correspondence, business law, typing, shorthand, economics, office practice, and filing make up the requirements for the department.

The prime objective of the Drama Department is the personal development of each student. A major in drama will take 42 semester hours of acting, speech, history of the theater, stagecraft, radio, directing, and play production. In addition to a recital by the senior majors, in the spring, each one is required to direct a one-act play during the year.

Music Theory

The Music Department, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Osthoff, is one of Intermont's most valuable departments, noted for the outstanding musicians it produces.

Recently the department was admitted to associate membership in the National Association of Schools of Music. This is quite an honor as there are only eleven junior colleges having this distinction.

The department courses include Music Theory, Introduction to Music, History of Music, Music Appreciation, Piano Ensemble, and Orchestra. Students may take private lessons in voice, piano, and violin.

Every year the Department of Music offers scholarships to high school graduates who are outstanding in the field of music.

Senior Class History

September 18, 1952, brought the members of the class of '53 back to V. I. after a lapse of three months of wonderful summer work and fun. It was good to be back. Screams and shouts filled the campus air when we saw old faces. Late hours crammed with talk of summer activities and the coming year together officially opened the school year of '52-'53 for the Senior Class. Midst all the confusion of getting back, our "Little Sisters" were not forgotten. September 20 brought the Y.W.C.A. Little Pal Party and we all became acquainted with the new Junior Class.

There was business to be taken care of and work for us all. Class officers were elected: Florence Loeffler, President; Wanda Haire, Vice-President; Ann Evans, Secretary; Mary Anne Stapleton, Treasurer. Dr. James Turner, better known as "Dr. Jim", was with us again for his second year as sponsor. The year looked like a good one and seemed to promise the best in every way.

Charm Week came in October, and the Seniors were pleased when Claire Cohen, V.I.'s own Student Government President, was elected Miss Charming of 1952. Rat Day also came in October, and on this never-to-be-forgotten day, the Superior Seniors reigned over the Lowly Juniors, who showed good spirit and sportsmanship.

November brought the most wonderful competitive event of the year—The Song Contest. Each class wrote its own proclamation and pep songs, and practices were heavy in the Hut weeks before the big night. Peggy Miller, our song leader, drilled us over and over again, but showed her patience and kept us headed in the right direction. On the night of November 15, we all filed silently into the gym. Each class sang its songs with great meaning, and the air was filled with spirit and love for V.I. We hoped and prayed we could be victors once again, and when Mr. Snodgrass announced our victory, tears filled our eyes, for once more we had worked together as one unit striving for the top. The good sportsmanship and congratulations of the losers made each and every one of them a victor, too.

In December, the volleyball tournament provided stiff competition for all classes. After a struggle the Seniors came out on top. This month brought the Christmas holidays and the nineteenth sent each girl on her way. The days flew by and soon we were back again, each telling of her wonderful days during the holidays.

Exam week passed quickly and February had begun. This month brought the basketball tournament. February 7 was the day of the Effigy Hunt and Junior-Senior basketball game. The Juniors, dressed in their oldest clothes, hunted and searched for the priceless Effigy. The Seniors were nervous and just couldn't sit still for fear the doll would be found. At five o'clock we were still in possession. That night the gym resounded with shouts and cheers from both classes, and after a close fought game, the Seniors reigned as basketball champions.

More class games came in March, among which were softball and hockey. March 23 was the date of the Junior-Senior banquet. Our Little Sisters gave us a night we will always remember, but sadness was in our hearts, for our days at V.I. were coming to a close and the class of '53 would soon be separated.

April brought the Easter holidays. Then May and our commencement activities began. Thursday, May 28, the Horse Show took place and the girls made a beautiful showing of their horsemanship. That night was the Torchlight ceremony, and both the high school and college took part. Tears and sadness prevailed, because reality came, and we knew there were but a few short days remaining and our whole life at V.I. would be at an end. Friday came and May Day was the big event with Joanne Mesch reigning as Queen over her court. That night and the next the Dramatics Department presented their commencement play, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Saturday morning was the Senior breakfast and Sunday morning saw all the Seniors at the First Baptist Church for the Baccalaureate sermon. Sunday evening the Seniors saw their last Vesper service of which they were in charge. Then Monday morning came and we all donned our caps and gowns and marched down to the amphitheater to receive our diplomas. Our hearts were filled with deep, unexplainable emotions, because each girl was losing something she loved. Yet as she parted from V.I., she had a permanent place in her heart for the school set among the mountains.

The Junior Class

Come on, Juniors, grab a crystal ball and let's peer into the past. Can you see way back into September?

Scared to death, but smiling like sunbeams, we Juniors trudged into the hallowed halls of Intermont in September of '52, and with eager anticipation settled down for our first year of college life. Mr. Daniel, our class sponsor, and Nancy Ramsey, our president, were the inspiration of our class, and with their help, we made unforgettable achievements.

So many things happened in such rapid succession that we "Lowly Juniors" became intoxicated with happiness and awe. Then we began to concentrate on more serious things, like the Song Contest. With a beautiful song, but victory just above our reach, we were more determined than ever to see "Senior Class '54" on the plaque.

Days fairly whizzed by after that, and we went home dreaming of a wonderful white Christmas.

Then, the Effigy Hunt and the Junior-Senior basketball game. The high-spirited class of '54 showed its good sportsmanship in the true spirit of V.I.

There was no lull after this big event. Easter vacation and the days before the Junior-Senior banquet were one mad rush.

All these things, and many other events of the year gave us lots to remember. And, now, we can put the old crystal ball back on the shelf, because these memories will remain with us always.

The High School Class History

The doors opened on September 15, 1952. This was the day when Virginia Intermont became our new home. It was the beginning of a new and exciting life.

Preparation for the Song Contest, the highlight of the year, began almost immediately. During these days the high school worked together and shared much happiness and heartache, and when the night arrived, a night that will long be remembered, the inevitable spirit of the Blue and White broke through and was at its highest. Not only the Song Contest, but the hockey, volleyball, basketball, and softball games between the different classes helped to bring the members of the high school close to each other and to V.I.

The high school was proud of its high scholastic rating which reigned during the year, and it was especially proud to have one of its members receive the honor of winning the "I Speak for Democracy" contest held in Bristol.

Then High School Day, the day that began at the early hour of five. This was our day—the day when we wore blue jeans to class and paraded around the campus in the way which was familiar to everyone.

High School
DAY

Climaxing the year was our Junior-Senior Banquet. It was a gala affair, but one which left an indelible mark upon our memory.

And then the time came to say good-bye—good-bye to our friends and everything that had come to mean so very much to us. This was the day when the proud high school seniors marched down the aisle to the familiar tune of "Pomp and Circumstance." Thus another year ended and the doors of Virginia Intermont closed behind us.

On! On! Victory
For the High School of V.I.C.
Show the rest, that we're the best,
We'll fight and ne'r give in,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Fight! Fight!
For Blue and White
And the glory and honor
We see,
We will shout, we will sing,
'Til the battle is won,
So on, on to victory.

Blue and White
Fight! Fight!
Blue and White
Fight! Fight!
Who'll fight?
We'll fight
Yeah! High School
Fight!

The staff is composed of Mr. C. Ernest Cooke's journalism students and of other students interested in writing, who are not taking journalism. Mr. Cooke has again been the capable sponsor of THE CAULDRON, and Mrs. Walter Crockett has ably edited the three alumnae editions issued this year.

The Young Women's Auxiliary is composed of girls from every denomination on our campus. It is the missionary organization which carries on a full program throughout the school year. This year Y.W.A. was in charge of sixteen chapel and vesper programs. Membership is included in each girl's tuition, and she is introduced to its purposes early in the fall. The main projects of Y.W.A. are mission offerings, gift boxes, and visits to the Janie Hammit and Katie Lockett homes. The functioning body of Y.W.A. is its council composed of representatives from each denomination. Sponsors are Miss Clark, Miss Pflug, Mrs. Willett, and Miss Smith.

The Baptist Student Union serves as the connecting link between the college student and the local church. When one joins an organization in the Baptist Church in a college community, he becomes a member of B.S.U. This year B.S.U. has sponsored Morning Watch, Evening Devotions, the B.S.U. PHI BETA

New pledges

The Alpha Beta Chapter of Phi Beta, national professional music fraternity, was chartered at Intermont in 1939. The establishment of this chapter gave Intermont the honor of being one of only two junior colleges in the organization. Alpha Beta's members are recommended by the music faculty, and after an audition are elected to membership on the basis of scholarship as well as musical ability.

The members of Phi Beta are inspired to strive for the best in all ways—for highest achievement in their chosen fields, for fine scholarship, and for outstanding service to their fellow students and to the school.

LITTLE U. N. CLUB

The Little U.N. Club is composed of all the foreign students on the campus. The primary aim of this club is to encourage friendship among the nations. At Virginia Intermont, this organization has brought together the following countries: Iraq, China, Cuba, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, and Venezuela. We feel that by joining together in such an organization, we can understand more about each other and hasten universal peace.

The club is frequently a guest of community clubs and organizations during the year.

The Arcannes, as the name implies, are those local students who come to V. I. as day students. A large group from many local high schools make up this year's organization. Being more active this year than in the past, the day students have performed many useful services to the school. The first formal dance of the school year was given by this organization on October 4. For the past two years, the Harvest Queen has come from among this group, and many of the Areannes hold important offices in honorary organizations on the campus. Sponsors for this active campus club are Mrs. Crockett and Miss Clark.

"Let's go for a swim!" The constant use of these words shows that swimming plays an important part on our V. I. campus, and in the lives of all the girls. Thus, the H_2O Club was established to create and maintain a growing interest in rhythmic swimming. To be eligible for membership, all girls must pass certain tests. Among the activities sponsored by the club are a water show and recreational swimming periods.

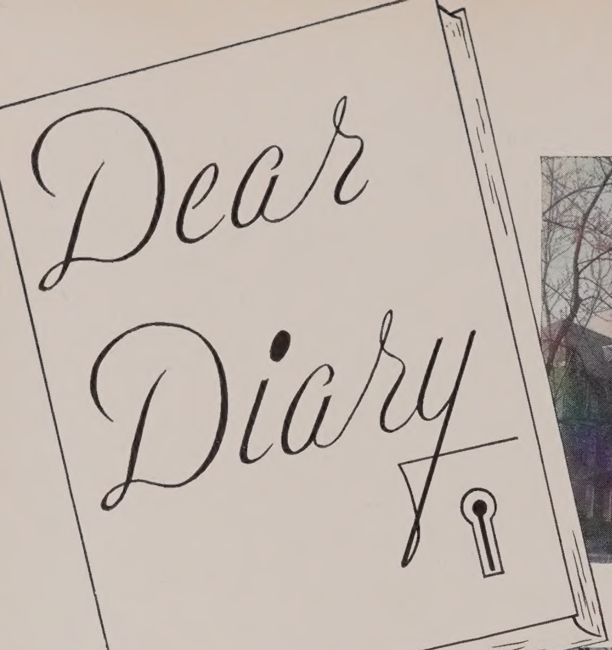
COLLEGE LIFE

To most girls, the best part of college is dorm life. Living together, they learn the value of friendship, its shared fortunes and misfortunes, and find how different, yet similar, are their fellow collegians.

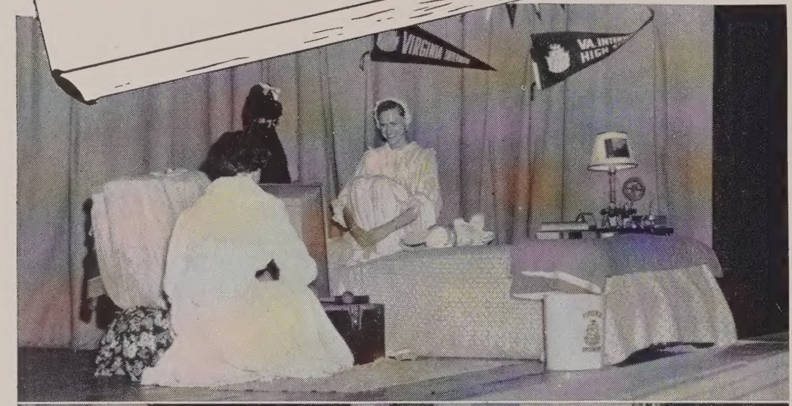


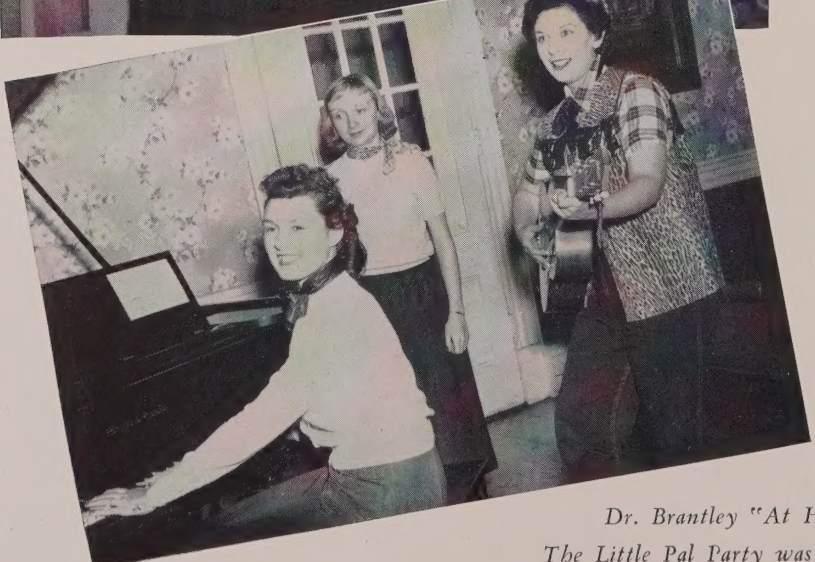
SEPTEMBER

First impressions of V. I.

A warm welcome for our new teachers!

"So This Is Intermont"





Dr. Brantley "At Home"

The Little Pal Party was wonderful!

Dear Diary,

September finally rolled around again, after the thrills of a wonderful summer, and before I knew it the chimes of V. I. were calling me back once more. Of course, the first few days found us all in a muddle of chaos. For the old girls, it was a continuation of the hilarious times spent together last year, and after the first loud greetings and wild embraces, we settled down to welcoming the new girls with warm smiles and cordial hellos, so typical of the wonderful feeling of friendship that exists here at V. I.

To start the year off with a bang, the Orientation Committee presented "So This Is Intermont" for the new arrivals. This really gave the girls a true picture of life here at Intermont, and plenty to look forward to in the coming year. Then we found ourselves at the Little Pal Party, laughing and singing with our "Little Sisters." Boy! We really discovered plenty of new talent in those gals.

Our first Sunday arrived with all of us in attendance at the First Baptist Church, and the Bristolians really stood by with their eyes open. "Mumsie" was beaming all over at the lovely picture her V. I. girls presented. Then Sunday afternoon, we were entertained graciously by Dr. and Mrs. Brantley in their home.

Diary, I guess none of us has had a chance to draw a good long breath this month. What a marvelous way to begin another school year!

Exhaustedly,
Me

OCTOBER

Charm Week saw some changes made!

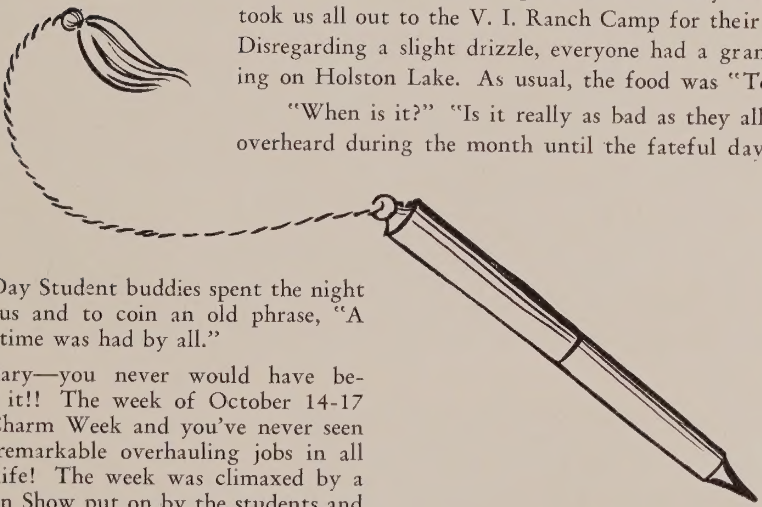
The Kiwanis Outing

We poor, miserable, "Rats"

Dear Diary,

We had talked of and planned for the day to come for so long, that when the Kiwanis Club took us all out to the V. I. Ranch Camp for their annual outing, we couldn't have had more fun. Disregarding a slight drizzle, everyone had a grand time exploring the Bristol Caverns and boating on Holston Lake. As usual, the food was "Tops," and there was plenty of it, too.

"When is it?" "Is it really as bad as they all say?" These are snatches from conversations overheard during the month until the fateful day arrived—a day loved by the Seniors and feared by the Juniors—Rat Day! It was a day of fun for all, however, and in the end we really discovered what a grand bunch of girls we have with us this year.



October 4, the Day Students gave a dance that was simply out of this world. I couldn't name one girl who didn't have a "scrumptious" time. It obviously impressed some East Tennessee State and V.P.I. boys, too. Huh, girls? The next Saturday night was a mighty sleepless one for many of us. Our Day Student buddies spent the night with us and to coin an old phrase, "A great time was had by all."

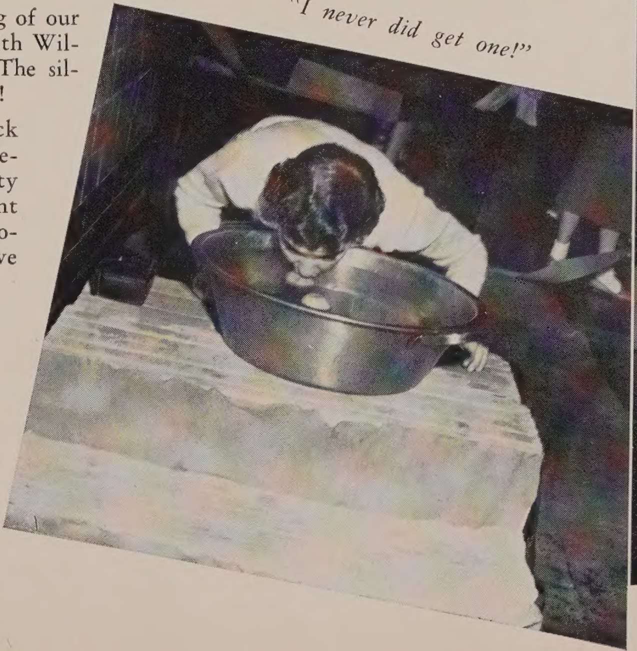
Diary—you never would have believed it!! The week of October 14-17 was Charm Week and you've never seen such remarkable overhauling jobs in all your life! The week was climaxed by a Fashion Show put on by the students and the crowning of our Miss Charming, Claire Cohen, who certainly deserved the honor.

This month saw the launching of our series of Community Concerts with William Kapell performing. Gee!! The silver fox and mouton were flying!!

Boy, oh boy, did we ever get back at those teachers!! We tried something new this year—a Faculty Auction, sponsored by Student Government, with the proceeds going to the war orphan they have "adopted." I don't reckon we've ever had so much fun. "Let's get those windows good and clean, now, Mr. Ayers."

More next month,
Me

"I never did get one!"



Misery Reaches
He Who Teaches

The Faculty Auction was fun for all!

NOVEMBER

I LIKE IKE
STEVENSON

"Ike" was our choice too!

Dear Diary,

V. I. really got into the political picture this year with its own mock election. It was a real battle from start to finish with campaign managers and speeches, committee meetings, and banners galore.

The hours and weeks of hard practice finally came to an end on the fateful night of November 15, as we all marched into the gym for the Song Contest. All three classes were great, and in the end, there were tears and smiles alike as Mr. Snodgrass announced the Seniors victorious.

Our able contest leaders!

Victory, Victory is our cry!!!!

EXIT
GIVE RITZ
OUR MANY BLESSINGS BY CONTRIBUTING TO THE THANKSGIVING BASKET

We all helped fill the baskets

"You mean that you are going all the way home to Jersey for Thanksgiving weekend?" This was typical of the conversations around campus this month, but those of us who remained here at V. I. thoroughly enjoyed the Phi Beta Recital and the formal Thanksgiving Banquet Thursday night. The food was simply out of this world. (I guess I'll never fit into my new velveteen, now!)

Religious Emphasis Week, which plays an important part in our school year, was highlighted with inspiring talks by Rev. I. B. Hall of Charlottesville, Virginia. I believe we all profited a great deal from his most challenging messages.

That's all for now, Diary, but I'll be back next month. Hark the V. I. students shout —19 days 'til we get out!

Love and stuff,
Me

DECEMBER

Our Christmas Formal

The Banquet was wonderful!

Dear Diary,

The strains of "I'll Be Home for Christmas" were audible from the first day of this month. It was mighty hard to concentrate on studies these two weeks, with dreams of Yuletide festivities creeping slyly into our thoughts. (You know how violently we fought these intrusions!) Candles and holly decorated the dining room and doorways, while Christmas trees in the date parlors helped us get into the holiday spirit.

December 6 found us scurrying around, fixing our formals and setting hair in preparation for the Christmas Dance. The gym was truly beautiful with Christmas trees galore.

The most impressive function of all was the party given for the little underprivileged children. It really made us feel good to see the delight on their tiny faces as they fumbled with the pretty wrappings. They didn't have to thank us, because their gratitude was reflected in shining eyes and shy smiles.

It's time now to say goodbye, Diary, until after a much anticipated vacation and 1953!!

STAND BY, MOM—

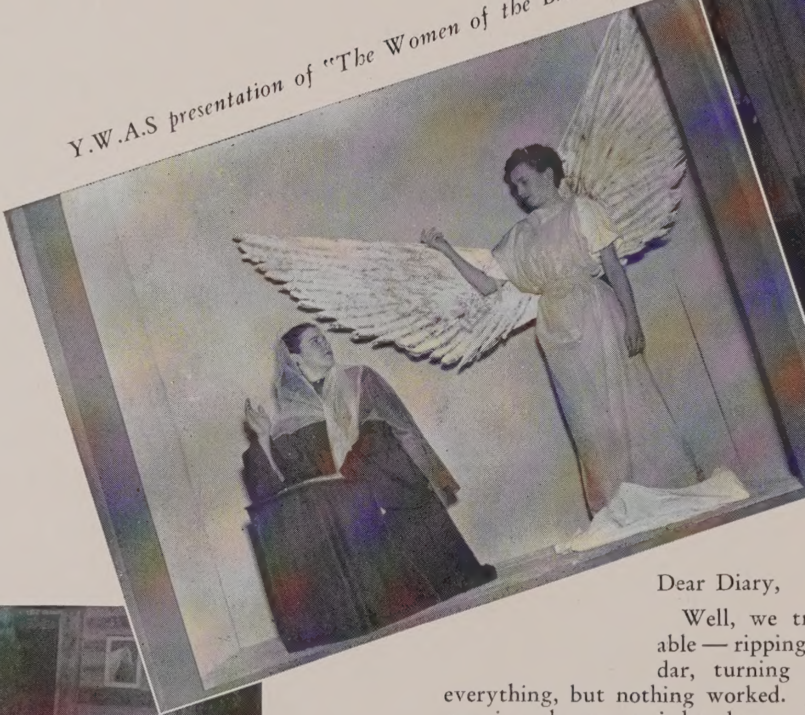
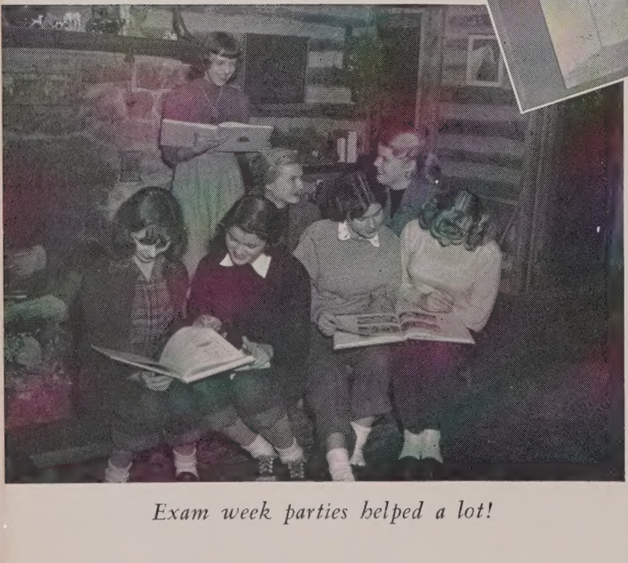
JANUARY

Agh! What a Mess!!!

Y.W.A.S presentation of "The Women of the Bible"



Josalee's Recital!



Exam week parties helped a lot!

Dear Diary,

Well, we tried everything imaginable — ripping that page off the calendar, turning back the clock — just everything, but nothing worked. January 6 got here this year just the same as it has done every other year, and we all came back to face a horrible monster—Examinations! Exam week teas at faculty homes eased the tension a bit, but we still hadn't recovered thoroughly from our nineteen-day December vacation, making it very hard to settle down to hard concentrated study!!

Forgetting exams and getting on to something more pleasant, we all celebrated our birthdays together at the annual Birthday Banquet sponsored by the Y.W.C.A. It was really something to remember, Diary. I actually ate three dishes of ice cream—and cake, too!

Let's see! Yes, that's all for now.

FEBRUARY

Dear Diary,

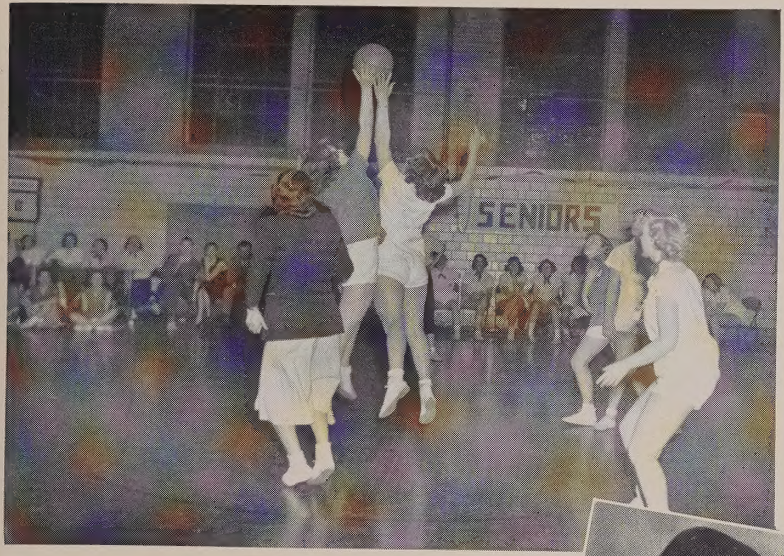
The first week in February was Vocational Emphasis Week. The talks given in chapel were definitely enlightening and beneficial to all. The conversations in the dorms and classrooms were filled with vows of conscientious study and determined promises of improving grades. To top off this first week of February the Junior-Senior Basketball Game was held with loads of excitement! The Effigy Hunt, the same day, found us falling out of trees, crawling out of tunnels and literally turning the campus upside-down! The stable and the boiler room will never be the same! Strange as it may seem, the Juniors had most of the fun while the Seniors sat back and gloated over their perfect hiding place.

"I just have a feeling it's here!"

Peanut Week was taken seriously and consequently was a marvelous success! You'd think we were professional housebreakers the way we got those gifts into our "peanuts' " rooms.

Valentine day was a lonesome one for some of us, with our boyfriends so far away, but for others it was traditionally wonderful! The Valentine Dance this year was a "V. P. I. special" and all seemed to enjoy themselves no end!

The Hit Parade party was one of the cutest functions that we had all year and everyone had lots and lots of fun.



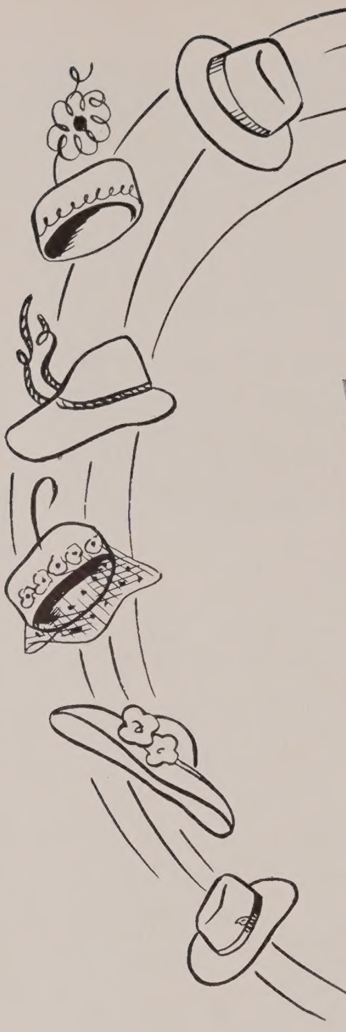
The Juniors put up a good fight!!!

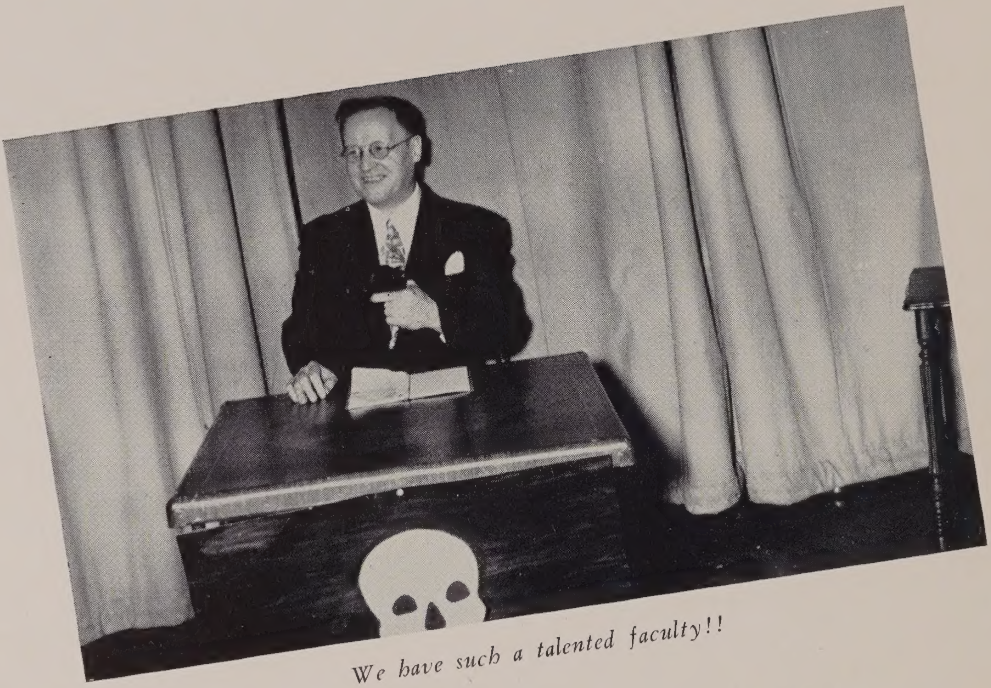
Myrt and Imp had lucky "Peanuts"

"... Do the Bunny Hop, Hop, Hop!"

Diary

MARCH





We have such a talented faculty!!

Dear

Dearest Diary,

This was truly a month of culture! The Drama Department presented a very clever play and everyone agreed that the acting was tops! The recitals included a couple of terrific piano and voice programs, plus the orchestra recital. They were all a real pleasure to hear.

Also in the line of "culture" was the wonderful production of Faculty Frolics that our teachers gave and did such a great job on. They all were good sports and kept everyone of us in stitches.

On the lighter side of things we had the Y.W.A. Easter Egg Hunt for the Goodwill Center which was just loads of fun.

The Publications Formal was wonderful!

And will you ever be able to forget that Junior-Senior Banquet? It was quite an event, wasn't it?

Once again we had to face the horrible truth. Grades were posted and allowances cut. The only thing that brought us out of our state of misery was the terrific time we all had at the Publications Formal. The traditional figure formed by the staffs of our two publications was most effective.

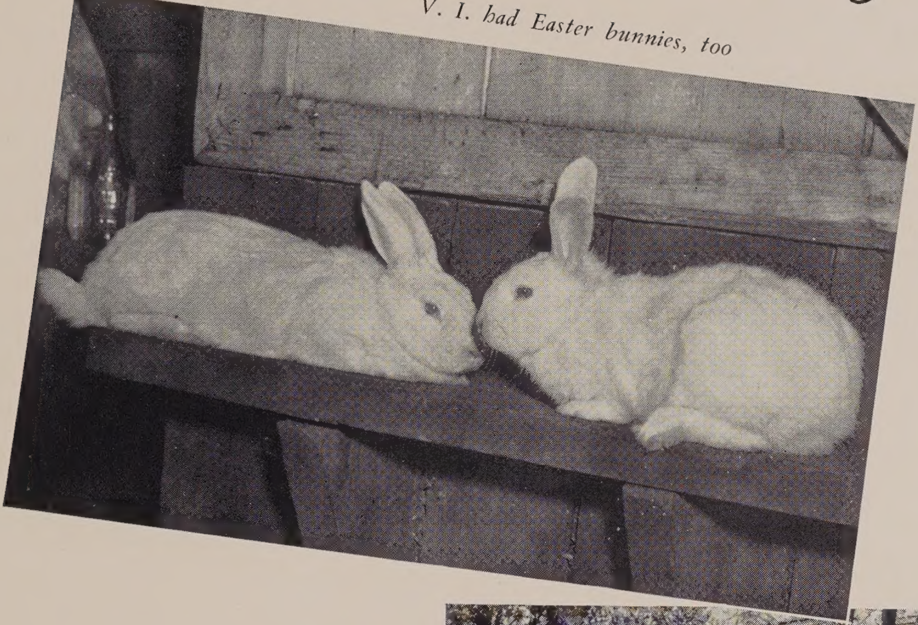
To bring the month to a close, the Y.W.A. presented a lovely vesper service to commemorate Palm Sunday.

'Til next time,
Me

A truly beautiful service!

APRIL

V. I. had Easter bunnies, too



Diary

Dear Diary,

"Home again, home again, jiggedy jig." For eight days we slept 'til noon, left our beds unmade until 2:00, and didn't sign up for one single meal! Aren't we terrible?!! We all really needed this vacation, students and faculty alike, and we came back rearing to go! That first weekend was high-lighted by the presence of some of our prospective students. We all had so much fun those two days I don't see how they could resist! We did, however, see a few very serious-looking people walking around campus with hopeful expressions on their faces. It seems that music scholarship auditions were given and many an anxious gal had her fingers crossed.

April 25 recalled the Song Contest weekend to mind, with all the '52 grads, returning for their class reunion. It sure was great seeing all those kids again. Some have really made names for themselves in their respective fields.

The Glee Club gave its concert on April 30, to bring to a perfect end, a perfect month.

Love,
Me

How about joining us next year, girls?

The High School kids went wild on "Their Day"!!

The Intermont
1952

We received our year books at the Publications Banquet.

Cramming was extra hard with such pretty weather!

Heads up!
Heels down!
The Horse Show
was a huge success!

Dear Diary,

I guess you can tell by my expression that this final month was certainly one of mixed emotions. Joy, since graduation is drawing so near which always symbolizes accomplishment, and sorrow for the thought of having to leave the friends that we have grown to love and the teachers that have been so wonderful in helping us pattern our futures. I suppose all good things must come to an end and one pleasant thought is that we can look forward to our class reunion next spring.

Our last formal of the year was held on May 2 and seemed to fall into the usual pattern of success that had been set by the previous school dances.

The days were so sunny (nice for sun-bathing) and the nights so beautiful (not so nice for studying) that we all found it hard to concentrate on biology, chemistry or psych., and to top it all off, on the eighth, the high school had "Their Day" and did nothing but have us all green with envy! Those lucky kids—wearing dungarees to class and having parties by the dozens.

Dear

MAY

The May Court was so lovely!

Everyone agreed the dancers were wonderful!

Joanne and Beanie looked lovely as Claire placed the crown on Joanne's head!

"Oh, my poor, other end!" This was the familiar cry of anguish that came from our expert equestrians when the horse show was over. They really worked hard for this event and believe me—it showed! Mrs. Edwards and her gang certainly deserve a lot of credit for the fine showing that was made!!!

Torchlight ceremony was an especially beautiful and impressive one that night. Very few eyes were dry as we departed for our dorms and bed.

May Day festivities brought out all V. I.'s beauties to make up an especially lovely May Court with Joanne Mesch reigning as our striking queen. The Commencement play and Baccalaureate Sunday were the last events of the year here at Intermont before graduation day, June 1.

The girls attended the First Baptist Church in a body, robed in the traditional regalia. It was quite an impressive sight for the Bristolians present.

These last few days marked the time when all the memories of the year, that passed so swiftly, came back to us in a flow of tears, when we hurried to catch our trains, busses and planes, that would carry us away from V. I. to every corner of the country.

To say good-by to girls that they had lived so closely with for the last nine months was hard for the Juniors, but for the Seniors, who were going out to different walks of life or on to a variety of colleges or universities, some of whom had no idea when they would ever see their friends again, it was a time of much crying and sadness.

We'll never forget the inspiring Torchlight service.

This memorable year will remain with us among our most treasured reveries. We must leave now—but we will always remember the friends we've made and the lessons we've learned under the cherished tower of our V. I.

Always,
Me
